

Georgia Association of Family and Consumer Sciences New Achiever Award Guidelines

Eligibility

Any GAFCS/AAFCS active member who does not belong to the Student Unit*, who has earned a Family and Consumer Sciences degree, and who has completed three (3) to eight (8) years of service to the field is eligible to receive this award.

Nomination Process

Nominations must be made by a sanctioned entity of the Association (such as an affiliate, community, committee, or unit, etc.). One nomination will be accepted from each nominating group. It is expected that the nominee will participate in preparing the nomination materials.

To nominate a GAFCS/AAFCS member, complete and submit the following materials:

1. A completed nomination form which can be found on the next page.
and
2. Letter of nomination that describes what makes the nominee outstanding and is signed by the president or national chair/leader of the nominating group (scan, if necessary, and upload).
and
3. At least two (2) pages of supporting materials (may include brochures; programs; photographs; newsletters; newspaper, magazine, and journal articles; complete bibliographical citations; and other relevant supporting material) that address each of the evaluation criteria listed in the guidelines (scan, if necessary, and upload).

Review Process

Jurors selected by the GAFCS Awards and Recognition Committee review the nominations. From the nominations the jurors will choose one nominee which in turn will apply for the 2011 AAFCS New Achievers Award with a nomination from the GAFCS Awards and Recognition Committee.
